“Shall We Dance?”

Brief Description

“Shall We Dance?” is a game with many different genres. It fits both into the fantasy category and the games for girls category. In “Shall We Dance?” the main character, a selkie named Fiona, picks up books while avoiding The Bimbos. When Fiona picks up all the books, the Bimbo Guards flee from her newfound wisdom, allowing her to get the treasure chest which holds her outfit and accessories for the Lunar Eclipse Dance and advance to the next level. With each level, The Bimbos become faster and more numerous, making it more challenging for the player. Fiona can also pick up bonuses, such as new lives or extra points, before the final level on the roof of the school, where she has to free her vampire boyfriend, Vance from the clutches of The Bimbos. At the end, Fiona and Vance are free to dance the night away!
